

Helping your clients find good legal information

Your newcomer clients trust you to help them with problems. But how can you help when they face a legal issue?

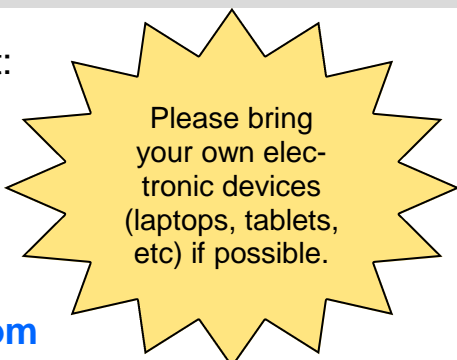

This free 3-hour workshop will:

- help you decide if there is a legal issue involved in your client's problem
- direct you to dependable sources of legal information
- help you assess the reliability of legal information
- explain the difference between legal information and legal advice
- tell you where to find legal advice and representation
- suggest ways to help your clients identify the steps they need to take to deal with a legal problem

Date: Wednesday, May 07, 2014
Time: 9:30am - 12:30pm
Location: The Learning Enrichment Foundation
Address: 116 Industry Street

For more information about the workshop, contact:

Michelle Cader, Community Outreach Manager
Community Legal Education Ontario (CLEO)
Tel: 416-408-4420 x 826
Email: caderm@lao.on.ca

Please bring your own electronic devices (laptops, tablets, etc) if possible.

For registration, please visit legalinfo.evenbrite.com

In collaboration with the Toronto West LIP, this workshop is presented by:

Toronto West
Local Immigration Partnership
Community Collaboration at Work

Funded by:

Financé par :

Citizenship and
Immigration Canada

Citoyenneté et
Immigration Canada